

WE GET SOMETIMES YOUR TARGET AUDIENCE WOULD RATHER WATCH THAN READ.

CDW Amplified™ OS and Apps Go-Live Launch Promotion Video

Raise the bar (and the brand) of IT in your organization when you deploy a TV commercial style promotional video to build excitement for your new implementation or updates to ServiceNow. These videos are professionally scripted and produced, in coordination with you and your team, to promote the key message you want people to get about your initiative.

CDW's Go-Live Launch Promotion Video can help you achieve:

-  Increased Performance
-  Operational Efficiencies
-  Agility

Orchestrating the Right Solution

The Go-Live promotional video is designed to promote the launch of a major change to ServiceNow in order to increase awareness, secure buy-in and drive better adoption rates across the broader organization.

Benefits You Will Receive:

- TV Commercial Style: Short and sweet, these launch videos are informative but pack a punch. Your video will be easy for employees to watch and share.
- Professional Script-Writing: We'll turn the messaging that's important to you into a 90-second to 3-minute script, including narration.
- Increase Adoption: Boost awareness, secure buy-in, and drive better organizationwide adoption rates.
