PRINT FROM HOME AND PRINTER SUPPLIES CONTINUITY

After transitioning a portion of your workforce to a Work from Home (WFH) environment, you are now faced with a new set of challenges in providing document printing capabilities for your organization:

- Choosing the Right WFH Print Device: Casual users printing a few documents per day have very different needs from those generating a high volume of business-critical documents.
- Ensuring Supplies Availability: Your staff is now responsible for finding a reliable source of ready-access printer supplies for both your WFH users and remaining office staff.
- Simplifying Supplies Replacement: Printers will continue to need supplies to print, requiring an efficient replenishment process to free your IT staff to focus their attention where it's needed most.

Fortunately, CDW can help you meet these challenges every step of the way with several ready-to-go solutions:

- WFH Print for Any User: From small-footprint MFPs ideal for basic users, to robust VPN-ready print devices to address power users, CDW and our partners at Brother, HP, Lexmark and Xerox have preselected, in-stock print solutions for every kind of employee.
- Supplies Available – When and Wherever You Need Them: CDW's extensive nationwide distribution and warehousing network ensures excellent stocking positions on ALL the printer supplies your organization needs. Leverage CDW's complimentary Printer Supplies Program \(PSP\) to provide users easy access to discounted supplies, with free ground shipping to both office and home addresses.
- Simplified Supplies Replenishment: Printer supply issues are the last thing your IT staff wants to deal with. CDW's complimentary Printer Supplies Program provides your organization with no-cost toner fulfillment services, including automatic toner delivery, prompted toner notifications, custom toner ordering pages and deep discounts on every major toner brand. These PSP features are available at no cost to you, and require no contracts, commitments, renewals or fees of any kind.
