

Home is where the meeting is.

Traveling can be fun. Traveling to meetings, not so much. Get back hours in your day. Free up peace of mind.

Stay where you are. Stay productive.

With 8x8 Video Meetings, you can meet with your team without traffic jams or carbon emissions. And unlike other video meeting services, you can meet without giving us your email address. Seriously.

Just visit 8x8's site, name your meeting and click start. That's it.

Free in HD.

8x8 Video Meetings feature free HD video and audio, free unlimited meetings and free dial-in with toll-free numbers. Happily, they're also time-limit free. Meet all day. Meet all night. We don't judge.

Travel is (cough, cough).

Traveling to a meeting is expensive, time-consuming and a hassle. Sort of like buying and installing "free" video conferencing software. Luckily, 8x8 Video Meetings are web-based, so they're quick to join and always virus-free.

Sick of in-person meetings?
