5 ways to create deeper student engagement
Cisco Webex for Educators

A new experience for secure hybrid and distance learning

Empower learning before, during, and after class

1. Expand the world for students and teachers
   - Video conferencing with students from around the world, and provide recordings of lecture content.
   - View student engagement:
     - Higher education: Annotate during lectures and record to create reference materials.
     - Integrate face-to-face and online students into one hybrid learning environment.
     - Video conference with students and publish office hours availability.

2. Ignite the love of learning, together
   - Collaborate virtually.
   - Current classes or groups of students take place in the cloud, providing continuous learning for student-teacher, educator-peer, and peer-peer communications.
   - Select virtual symptoms.

3. Integrate online and in-person face-to-face students
   - Integrate solutions promote effective distance and hybrid learning, helping teachers and students to provide effective virtual class sessions, understanding diverse students.
   - Solutions can be connected to Webex Traffic, and employees can contribute, as long as everyone is in the same environment.
   - See it in action:
     - Primary (K-12) schools: Explore the world with virtual field trips, lead mini-lessons, and break into groups for screen-sharing and discussions.
     - Higher education: Expand digital relationships with other students around the world.
     - Schedule virtual parent/teacher conferences to stay connected.

4. Open the doors to education everywhere
   - Learn anywhere.
   - Collaborative software that breaks down barriers, and students can learn anytime, anywhere.
   - Video conferencing and accessible in class, from home, and everywhere in between.
   - Open the doors to education everywhere.

5. Better engagement without compromise
   - See it in action:
     - Educators and students can easily collaborate where they teach and learn.
     - Webex Education Connector deeply integrates with leading learning management systems (LMS).
     - Webex Meetings and Teams are integrated into the LMS platforms, providing a seamless environment.
     - Connect without leaving your LMS.
