

Upgrade Your Servers and GET CASH BACK!

HOW DOES IT WORK?

You need to refresh your aged infrastructure, so why not get cash back in the process?

When you trade in your old servers, you'll get up to $650 for each server as a check from HPE after the new server purchase has been completed. The servers can be from any manufacturer, including Hewlett Packard Enterprise.

You will receive a rebate of $400 per server, plus an additional $250 for each iLO Advanced Premium Security License you add!

HOW TO GET STARTED

- Request a trade-in quote on your old servers
- Buy new servers from CDW
- Send proof of purchase to HPE
- HPE picks up the old servers and mails a check

NOTE: HPE will cover your shipping, handling, and recycling costs

SPECIFICS

- Servers or blades that qualify for trade in include any server from HPE or any other manufacturer
- You can trade in up to four servers for every one server purchased
