

Box.org and CDW

Powering The Change For Tomorrow

CDW and Box are proud to announce a new initiative called Box.org, focused on empowering global nonprofits and development organizations to achieve their missions and deliver lasting social impact through better use of technology.

To help small teams achieve massive goals, Box is donating 10 licenses of Box Starter Edition to all eligible organizations and offering 50% discounts off list pricing for all additional licenses.

Please visit Box.org to read success stories and apply for the donation. Remember to include "CDW" in the "How did you hear about us?" field of the online application form.

Eligible Organizations

Organizations eligible for the Box.org program are 501c3 organizations that have a declared and verifiable charitable or philanthropic mission to benefit communities that could include, but not limited to, providing relief to the poor, advancing civil society, delivering education, preserving culture, restoring the environment and championing human rights.

Partner with CDW Nonprofit

CDW Nonprofit is your partner in finding IT products, solutions and services to help you deliver on your mission.

Having the right technology in place is essential to managing and advancing your nonprofit organization. Especially when budgets are tight, technology can save your organization both time and money. At CDW, we understand the specific needs of the nonprofit industry and can help you find the right IT solutions to enable your organization to communicate more effectively and securely, engage with donors and manage volunteers. CDW Nonprofit makes your mission our mission, with solutions tailored to your specific needs.
